

Job Title: Programmer

Ref No: ZAM/P/2

Reports To: Manager Information Systems Development

Job Purpose: To develop and maintain software systems at Zimele Asset Management Company and its Clients

Duties and Responsibilities:

1. Gather software systems requirements
2. Develop and test software systems.
3. Develop inline, online and offline user documentation.
4. Train and support users.
5. Maintain existing systems.
6. Carry out other duties as may be assigned by Management.

Job Requirements:

The applicant must have:

- Undergraduate degree in IT/Computer Science/Information Systems / Software Engineering/ Software Development from an institution recognized by the Kenyan Commission for Higher Education (CHE).
- Working experience in systems analysis, design and implementation and must demonstrate knowledge of software project cycle.
- Ability to program in J2ME, Pascal Delphi, PHP, ASP.Net.
- Good understanding of MySQL, Firebird Databases
- Knowledge of both Windows and Linux platforms is a requirement.
- Experience with client-server databases.
- Knowledge of UnitTrust, Pension Administration, Financial Systems or related software is an added advantage.
- Proficiency in Data warehousing and Business intelligence is desirable.
- Age: Below 30 years

Application letters should be accompanied by a detailed curriculum vitae, full names and contacts of three (3) referees, daytime contacts, and copies of academic and professional certificates, transcripts and testimonials.

Send your application to jobs@zimele.net